MISS ALEXANDER IS MR. ALDRICH'S BRIDE

Notable Guests at Marriage of Late Senator's Son and New York Girl.

MUSIC BY A STRING BAND

A Large Reception Follows-Church and Home Beautifully Decorated.

Miss Harriet Alexander, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, was married to Winthrop Williams Adrich, a son of the late Senator Nelson W. Aldrich of Providence, R. I., at 1:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Pitth Avenue Presbyterian Church. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Maitland Alexander of Pittsburg, an uncle of the bride, who was assisted by the Rev. Dr. John H. Jowett, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church.

The chancel was banked with masses of palms, ferns and potted plants, and where the bride and bridegroom stood was arranged a bower of ferns, white and Mrs. J. Howland Auchincloss, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howland Auchincloss, Mr. and Mrs. Summer Gerard. Mr. and Mrs. Snowden Palnestock, Miss Katharine Tweed, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howland Auchincloss, Mr. and Mrs. David Wagstaff, Mrs. William May er of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexan-

The chancel was canned with masses of palms, ferms and potted plants, and where the bride and bridegroom stood was arranged a bower of ferns, white chrysanthemums and roses. Tall cedar and bay trees placed in the galleries was arranged a bower of ferns, white chrysanthemums and roses. Tall cedar and bridegroom stood was arranged a bower of ferns, white chrysanthemums and roses. Tall cedar and bay trees placed in the galleries above and on either side of the charcel formed an attractive background for these decorations, and along the pews of the main aisle were fastened clusters of white roses and ferns. Before and during the wedding services there was a musical programme by the organ and a string orchestra.

The bride entered the church with her father, who gave her away. She wore a gown of soft white satin draped with founces of old rose point lace, the Hollister, Mr. and Mrs. F. de Peyster Hollister, Mr. and Mrs. F. de Peyster father, who gave her away. She wore a gown of soft white satin draped with founces of old rose point lace, the sleeves, full and of elbow length, being made of this face. The bodice of the gown was of surplice effect, and forming a part of the skirt was a long train square cut and finished with a double row of tuile and lace.

The bride were a short veil of rose point lace, which had been worn by point lace, which had been worn by the mother when a bride. This was Mrs. C. Auguste Spreckels. Mrs. William fastened over the coffure with a simple croist of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilles of the valley. Among her orna-ments was an oval shaped diamond pendant held by a chain of diamonds, a gift of the bridegroom.

Bride's Attendants in White.

The Misses Janetta and Mary Crocker Alexander, sisters of the bride, were the only attendants. Their costumes were of white slik and chiffon, the skirts being of walking length and gathered in simple folds at the walst. The sleeves were large black beaver hats trimmed at the crown with bands of gold leaves and a layer of dark brown tulle covering the broad flat rims. They carried bou-

Jr., Samuel A. Weldon, Harrison Tweed, Gordon Auchineloss, John V. Woodard, William Grosvenor, Richard S. Aldrich,

tember e. in Brooklyn, N. Y., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Loines, by the Rev. Charles H. Lyttle, Phoebe A. Lorenz of Hartford, Conn. No

DIED.

COZZENS .- On December 6, at the resideure of her son-in-law, 1195 Pacific street, Brooklyn, Charlotte Marvin Contens, mother of Henry A. Cozzens and Mrs. Harrison B. Starr, in her hidely-fifth year.

Funcial services at St. Bartholomew's Church, Pacific street, near Bedford machine, on Friday, at 5 P. M. Inter-ment at Utjea. Please omit flowers.

Mary's Cemetery. Train leaving Grand Central, upper level, at 2:20 o'clock.

MORTON—On December 6, 1818, at his fradince. Lansdowne, Ps., Frederick Nash Morton, formerly of Hoboken.
N. J., and son of the late Edmund Ludiuw Morton.

Services and litterment at Vales Gate, N. V., Saturday, December 9, at P. M.

WHITE:—At St. Luke's Hospital, on Desamber 2, 1918, Learned, son of Andrew G, and the late Agnes G, white of $35 West Most avenue.

Function and litterment at Vales Gate, N. V., Saturday, December 9, at P. M.

WHITE:—At St. Luke's Hospital, on Desamber 2, 1918, Learned, son of Andrew G, and the late Agnes G, white of $35 West Most avenue.

Function and litterment at Vales Gate, N. V., Averell Horriman, Mr. John Mars. Orme Wilson, Mrs. Burke Roche, Mrs. J. Turner Atterbury, Mr. John Institut Str., M. Meary Harriman, Mrs. John Mars. Orme Wilson, Mrs. Burke Roche, Mrs. J. Turner Atterbury, Mrs. John Mars. Orme Wilson, Mrs. Burke Roche, Mrs. J. Turner Atterbury, Mrs. John Mars. Orme Wilson, Mrs. Burke Roche, Mrs. J. Turner Atterbury, Mrs. John Mars. Orme Wilson, Mrs. Burke Roche, Mrs. J. Turner Atterbury, Mrs. John Mrs. Mrs. John Mrs. J

Others were Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Allen G. Well-

Hollister, Mr. and Mrs. F. de Peyster Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Dinsmore, Miss

Ethel Harriman, Mrs. Frederick W. Van-derbilt, Miss Mabel Gerry, Mrs. Her-mann Oelrichs, Mr. and Mrs. F. Burrall

T. Baylies, Mrs. James A. Burden, Mrs. Adrian H. Jeline, Mrs. William K. Van-derbilt, Jr., and Mrs. James R. McKee.

There were also at the reception Mr and Mrs. Oliver G. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Henry, Mrs. Elliott F. Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Douglas Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Munroe Robinson, Mrs. Amory S. Carhart, Dr. William B. Anderton, Miss Dorothy An-

DANCERS AS ADVERTISEMENTS.

Several entertainments for debutantes parties.

Mrs. Charles Remsen gave a dinner the dining and drawing rooms. Conrad's prchestra played during the dinner and nal work of mischief makers." afterward for the dance.

Misses Adelaide Wilmerding. Helen dress of the Ambassador, He had begun Cameron, Margaret Mason, Mary Colt. heresa Fabbri, Katherine Morgan, Amy Reick, Frances Field, Helen Alexander Isabel Stettinius, Auguste de Forest, Geraldine Adee and Elizabeth Emmet : W. Bruce Brown, Philip Kip Rhine-lander, R. Reginald Livingston, John R. Suydam, Jr., Coster Steers, Gallatin Fell, Murray Hoffman, George Henry War-ren, Jr., Pennington Pearson, G. Norton Miller, Jr., Norvin Green, Playel Hub-bard, De Coursey Fales, Frederick Cunlingham. Clermont Barnewell, Walton

Another dinner was given by Mrs. Archibald B. Russell of 34 East Thirty-Archibald B. Russell of 34 East Inity-sixth street for her daughter, Miss Helen Russell. Her guests included the Misses Barbara Allen, Marion Dinsmore, Mary Opdycke, Mary Hall, Ethel Potter, Pauline Bacon, George W. Bull, Jesse Hoyt, John Rutherfurd, Robert Franks, Bartow Farr and Montgomery Langdon. The guests from this dinner party and those from dinners given by Mrs. John Wood Blodgett and Mrs. Walter Suy-dam went on to the dance given for Mus Remsen. Mrs. William A. Burnham will

Mrs. William L. Harkness gave ception at her home, 12 East Fifty-third street, yesterday afternoon to introduce her dausther, Miss Louise Harkness. Among those in the receiving party were the Misses Adele Chisholm and Catherine William B. Anderton, Miss Dorothy Anderton, Mrs. Louis T. Montant, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Iselin, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Aldrich, Mr. and Mrs. William M. V. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. William Payne Thompson, Louis Brugulere, Miss Maria de Barril, Miss Mary Eno, Mrs. Alexander S. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. C. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kountse, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Foster Carey, Miss Madeleine Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Miss Madeleine Carey, Mr. and Mrs. York of Cleveland, Alice Lawrence, Mar-tha Keep, Esther Kimball, Grace Mont-gomery, Sarah Bulkley, Beatrice Pyn-chon, Ellen McCarter and Helen Hoad-ley. An informal dinner followed the reception, after which Mrs. Harkness took her guests to see "Good Gracious Annabel" at the Republic Theatre and afterward to the Club de Vingt for sup-

Mrs. Madeleine Carey, Mr. and Mrs.
Robert P. Huntington, Miss Pauline
Robinson, Mrs. George H. Huil, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Hoffman, Miss Alice
Preston, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan G. Barnowell, Mr. and Mrs. Harrie T. Lindeberg, Another reception of yesterday after-Mason to introduce her daughter, Miss Margaret Van B. Mason, at her home, $54 Fifth avenue. In the receiving party were the Misses Cora Shields of Phila-

Ard, Miss Mary Wiborg, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Clark.

Included in the list were Mr. and Mrs. James Lowell Putnam, Miss Lota Robinson, Mrs. Burke Roche, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Choate, Mrs. E. Henry Harriman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Gerry, Mrs. Joseph Pulitzer, Mrs. Fletcher Ryer, Miss Doris Ryer, Mrs. Franklin D. Pelton, Mr. and Mrs. Hallett A. Borrowe, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Cowdin, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Iselin, Henry T. Sloane, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Baker, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George B. Baker, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George B. Baker, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hastings Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hastings Mr. and Mrs. W. Goadby Loew, Miss Dorothy Grenville Kane, T. Chesley Richardson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Emerson McMillin and A. Morris Bagby.

When they return from a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich will live at 16 East Fifty-sixth street.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

DANCERS AS ADVERTISEMENTS.

Funeral services at St. Bartholomew's Church, Pacific street, near Bedford assone, on Friday, at 5 F. M. Interment at Utica. Please omit flowers.

FAIRFAN—Statesed into life eternal, on Thursday, December 7, 1916. Hamilton B. Fairfax, in the 65th year of his age, at his residence, Merrick, L. I. I pheral services will be held at Grace Church Brookway and Tenth street, ess Monday, Lecember 11, at 18 A. M. Virginia and Baltimore papers please company and Baltimore papers please to the street of the grace of the street of the grace of the street of the grace of the auspices of the Women's Church Brookway and Tenth street, ess Monday, Lecember 11, at 18 A. M. Virginia and Baltimore papers please representing some of the most popular distance of the grace of the auspices of the Women's Church Brookway and Tenth street, ess Monday, Lecember 1, at 18 A. M. Virginia and Baltimore papers please of the grace o

Deux Sourds" at the Garrick Theatre Monday, Ilenry Valbel, a young tragedian from the Comedie Francaise, will make his debut here Monday night with Glida Durthy in "I'Aventuriere" at the tierrick Theatre.
"The Witching Hour." Augustus
Thomas's drama based on mental telepathy, will be seen in picture form at the Rialto next week.
"The Girl Philippa," by Robert W.
Chambern has been made into an elaborate picture by the Vitagraph company, with haits Blewer. That and other Witagraph

Crocker and the Misses Crocker of San Francisco, Mrs. John J. McCook, the Misses McCook, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin D. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Dohn D. Rockefeller, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Mr. and Mrs. Or Templeton Crocker, Mrs. Maltiand Alexander, Mrs. William T. Aldrich, Mrs. Stuart M. Aldrich, Mr. and Mrs. C. Templeton Crocker, Mrs. Maltiand Alexander, Mrs. William Grosvenor, Mrs. Howard Sturges, Mrs. and Mrs. Augustus Jay, Mr. and Mrs. Holliand Alexander, Mrs. Maltian Grosvenor, Mrs. Howard Sturges, Mrs. and Mrs. Maurics Congdon, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Jay, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolim Whitman and their children, Mr. and Mrs. Maurics Congdon, Mr. and Mrs. Maltiand Grosvenor, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Theodore Roosewelt, Jr., Miss Gruce Roosewelt, Mrs. Miss Harkness Also Makes Her Bow. Makes Her Bow. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Lippitt and Mrs. Clement C. Moore. Others were Mr. and Mrs. William Grosvenor, Others were Mr. and Mrs. William Grosvenor, Jr., Mrs. Archibald S. Alexander, Archibald Alexander, Mrs. S. Makes Her Bow. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Lippitt and Mrs. Clement C. Moore. Others were Mr. and Mrs. William Grosvenor, Mrs. William Grosvenor, Mrs. Starting Mrs. Clement C. Moore. Others were Mr. and Mrs. William Grosvenor, Mrs. Starting Mrs. Clement C. Moore. Others were Mr. and Mrs. William Grosvenor, Mrs. Starting Mrs. Clement C. Moore. Others were Mr. and Mrs. William Grosvenor, Mrs. Starting Mrs. Clement C. Moore. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Lippitt and Mrs. Clement C. Moore. Others were Mr. and Mrs. William Grosvenor, Mrs. Starting Mrs. Clement C. Moore. Others were Mr. and Mrs. William Grosvenor, Mrs. Starting Mrs. Clement C. Moore. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Lippitt and Mrs. Clement C. Moore. ENVOY SATO'S PLEA

Forty Guests at Remsen Home Would Cheat the Mischief

His Excellency Almaro Sato, the new vere given yesterday, including lunch- Japanese Ambassador, standing erect cons, receptions, dinners and theatre with arms outstretched and his voice vibrating, described to the members of the Japanese Society last evening, his ideal of forty at her home, 800 Madison ave- of the relationship between his country nue, for her debutante daughter, Miss and the United States. He spoke of a Elizabeth Remsen. Four tables, dec- union of friendship and commercialism. orated with pink roses, were placed in knitting the two nations so closely that "there will be no room left for the crimifterward for the dance.

Among the dinner guests were the of "Banzal" that interrupted the adhis address under auspicious circum-stances, but the warmth of his speech, the expression of his aims to the end of bringing more knowledge to Americans of his country and of helping the Japa-nese to understand the cordial feeling of Americans for Japan aroused even keener enthusiasm.

Ambassador Sato, newcomer to official capacity, is no stranger to America and Americans. The Ambas-sador was graduated from De Pauw University in Indiana and served as secretary to the Japanese Embassy and then was a member of the Japanese reace delegation in 1905.

American men and women of distinction were the loudest in applause of Mr. Sato's sentiment. At the guest table sat A. Barton Hepburn, August Belmont, Lindsay Russell, precident of the Japan Society; Major George Haven Putnam and Henry Clews, Near by sat Jacob H. Schiff, John Franklin Fort of New Jersey, Nicholas F. Brady and T. New Jersey, Nicholas F. Brady and T. Tanaki, councillor to the Japanese Em-

"I may say," he continued, "that the foundation of my career was laid here," ond then telling of his service in other countries, he added, "and now returning to Washington, nothing to me is a country which greater pleasure than to represent my august sovereign in a country which lies so near to my heart that I may be allowed to call it a second home."

The bullet from the walls of the Brandywine ceived in the battle of the Brandywine on September 11, 1777.

Mrg. Glentworth was a descendant of Cot. James Budden, who commanded Gen. Washington's bodyguard at Trenton, and of Mark Richards, a prominent ton, and of Mark Richards, a prominent ton. This Episcopal Church in Philadelphia was erected by her family in 1754, and the church has lies so near to my heart that I may be allowed to call it a second home."
He said that he felt "our hearts are beating in unison in the desire to promote our common cause," and then launching into his speech, said:

"The traditional friendship between Japan and America, I am happy to say, har never been jeopardized seriously at many years she took an active part in house of the second of the

has never been jeopardized seriously at any period of history. Fundamentally characterized with justice, fair play and mutual sympathy, the cordial relations of our two countries have oft escaped of time; and I am sure that unless some unforeseen and unavoidable current of events produce a clash of the most vital i iterests between Japan and America

Mr. Howard Page.

Mr. Howard P

Arest, president of Rutgers College; John Rarrett, director of the Pan American Union, and Henry Clews, banker. At the conclusion of the dinner and the speaking a dance was held.

THE SEAGOERS.

Sailing to day by the Holland-America liner Ryndam, for Falmouth and Rotterdam; W. F. Bullock.

Wr. Bullock.

Mr. And Mrs. Maurice Cedric Chivers.

Miss Elsie Knox Cot.

Mrs. P. F. Miller, Miss Elsie Knox Cot.

Mrs. D. P. Mitchell.

Miss Elsee Knox Cot.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Mitchell.

Junius S. Morgan.

Mr. A. Dawson.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. D. P. Mr. and Mrs. D. December 4. He was formerly connected with James McCreery & Co. and Chency Brothers, and at his death was general minager of the Scruggs-Vandervoort-Barney Dry Goods Company of St. Louis

John T. McKems.

WILLS AND APPRAISALS.

EDWARD C. ANDERSON—Died January F.
1916. Net estate $147,471. Estelle Platt Anderson, widow, received $76,116; Eliza M. Anderson, daughter, $42,947; Edward C. Anderson, daughter, $42,947; Edward C. Anderson destates. Decedent held 758 shares of shock of E. C. Anderson Company, insurance brokers, 125 William street, appraised at $77, 967. Paintings owned by decedent were sold for $4,849.
JOHN CONNOR, who died in Brooklyn on November 23, left $41,000. A sister and three nieces will share the estate.

H. A. FAIRFAX DIES FROM PNEUMONIA

Luncheons, Receptions and New Ambassador Tells of Good Member of Colonial Family Expires in Long Island

> Hamilton Rogers Fairfax, prominent in religious and philanthropic circles in New York and the South, died yesterday from penumonia in his country home in Merrick, Long Island. Mr. Fairfax, whose ancestral history was closely interwoven with that of Virginia, was born in Alexandria, March 2, 1853. He was the son of Col. John Walter Fairfax and Mary Rogers Fairfax. His mother was the daughter of Col. Hamilton Rogers. He married Eleanor Van Rensseiaer, connected with an old patroon and revolutionary family of Albany.

Mrs. Fairfax, the widow, is president of the Colonial Dames of New York. In addition to the widow, he is survived by two children, Mrs. Schuyler Cammann and Hamilton Van Rensselaer Fairfax, a member of the Seventh Resiment, who member of the Seventh Regiment, wh member of the Seventh Regiment, who recently returned from duty on the Mexican border.

A brother of Mr. Fairfax, Henry Fairfax of Oak Hill. Va., died four months ago. Two other brothers, John Waiton Fairfax of Coggen Hall. Va., and Lindsay Fairfax of New York, and a sister, Mrs. Charles G. Ayres of New York, also survive him.

Mr. Fairfax was a member of the Church Club, the Huguenot Society, and the Colonial Lords of Manors. The Pairfax town house is at 1913 Madison avenue.

The funeral will probably be held Monday, although final arrangements for the interment have not yet been an-

CAROLINE E. GLENTWORTH.

Member of Old Family Dies in Her New York Home.

Mrs. Caroline E. Glentworth, widow of James Linton Glentworth, died yesterday in her home, 110 West Eightyfourth street. She was a daughter of Dr. Horation Neison Glentworth, Medical Director of the United States Navy, and a great-granddaughter of Dr. George Glentworth of Philadelphia, one of the founders of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of that city, who was In beginning his speech the Japanese senior physician of the Continental army Ambassador said he already owed much to this country.

"I may say," he continued, "that the bullet from the wound that Lafayette remaining the bullet from the wound that the bullet from the wound the wound the bullet from the wound the society, holding a number of receptions and gatherings each season. She mar-ried Mr. Glentworth, a cousin, in 1887. She leaves a son, living in Cleveland, Ohio, and a daughter, Miss Marguerite Linton Gientworth, a writer and club race. Yonkers, vice-president and general manager of the Knox Hat Manufacturing Company, died yesterday in St. John's Riverside Hospital from injuries suffered October 20, when he was run down by an automobile owned by Arthur 15 Ellis 231 North Bradesay Vockers D. Elliot, 231 North Broadway, Yonkers. He was 59 years old.

Jeane Taylor.

Springricio, Ohio, Dec. 7.—Jesse Tay-er, director-general of the National Highways Association of Washington, D. C., and president of the Ohio Good Roads

Unusual Purchase Offers Great Advantage English materials delayed in shipment-should have been here in September. Man who ordered wouldn't accept. Agent reduced price to make quick sale. We bought and offer you advantage of unusual purchase. A suit or overcoat to measure from these materials will cost you $25-Well worth $10 to $15 more.

Imported drapes -full dress suit, Silk lined throughout $45. · Tuxedo Suit $40.

BROADWAY & NINTH STREET AND

Federation, died at his home in James-town, Ohio, near here, early to-day from Bright's disease.

William Hatteroth.

San Francisco, Dec. 7.—William Hat-teroth, a California pioneer and an as-sociate of Alexander Graham Bell in the latter's early experiments with the tele-phone, died last night in his home here. Mr. Hatteroth was born in Germany seventy-two years ago. He canstructed the first telephone line in China.

Julius Hurter, Sr.

St. Louis, Dec. 7.—Julius Hurter, Sr., known to naturalists throughout the world as a snake hunter and collector, said to be one of the most comprehensive was closely interwoven with that of Virginia, was born in Alexandria, March 2. bequeathed to the Smithsonian Institution.

John S. de Hart.

John S. de Hart, a lifelong resident of New Brunswick, N. J., and for thirty years superintendent of the local branch dis, Treasurer of Pittsburg and one of the best known bankers in the city, dled at his home here to-day of heart disease. He was 53 years old.

Pittsnung, Dec. 7 .- Harry M. Lan-

Mrs. Edward M. Burghard will give a Publique, at sales recently have brought dance to-night at the Riz-Carlton to introduce her daughter, Miss Anna Burg- francs ($1,800), and 5,700 francs a luncheon followed by auction bridge to-day at her home, 2 East Sixty-fifth Receptions for debutantes will be given this afternoon by Mrs. Harold Henderson, Mrs. William C. De Lancy and Mrs. L. E. Clarke Snow. Mrs. Andrew Carnegie will give a dance to-night at her home, 2 East Ninety-first street, to introduce her daughter, Miss Margaret Carnegie. Miss Kathleen Burke will give a lec ture on December 14 at the home of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, 660 Fifth ave-nue, for the benefit of the American Ambulance Fund of Paris.

General and Mrs. Howard Carroll gave a party last night at the Globe Theatre for their son and daughter-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Carroll. After dance at the Carroll home, 4 East Sixtyfourth street.

A Christmas sale for the benefit of the A Christmas sale for the benefit of the Darrach Home for Crippled Children will be held to-day in the East room of the Waldorf-Astoria. Among those in-terested are Mrs. Charles E. Warren, Mrs. Grant Squires, Mrs. Frank D. Sherman and Mrs. Sidney Kirkman. Miss Abby Putnam Morrison gave a dinner last evening at her home, 20 East Forty-ninth street, for Baron and Baroness von Schoen, who were married

OF PRINTS ON BLOCK

Wonderful Specimens of Rare Engravings to Be Sold Next Monday.

Rare and beautiful French engravings of the eighteenth century will be offered for sale at the Anderson Galleries, Madi son avenue and Fortieth street, on Mon day night, when Part III. of the Fred-eric H. Halsey collection of prints will be auctioned. The sale will continue five scarce that they are not to be found in any other collection in America. The collection of Mr. Halsey was begun than thirty years ago, and since that time he not only picked up many fine prints from private collections, but also was represented at all the important

Among the masters whose work is represented are Baudouin, Bonnet, Debucourt, Fragonard, Freudeberg, Eisen, Huet, Janinet, Jazet, Lancret, Le Cœur, Legrand, Levachez, Moreau, Saint Aubin, Watteau and Wille.

Debucourt and Janinet Gems. the best known bankers in the city, died at his home here to-day of heart disease. He was 53 years old.

NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD.

Miss Genevieve Clendennin will give a luncheon to-day at Sherry's.

The annual reception and dance of the Virginians will be held to-night at Sherry's.

The first for this season of the Three Sherry bances will be held to-night at Sherry's.

Miss Edward M. Burghard will give a Mrs. Edward Mrs probably greatly attract collectors. It was this pair that were sold in 1911 for 12,000 francs ($2,600) to a dealer who was bidding for all the others. Later that day in the "knockout" sale among the dealers they brought 24,500 francs ($4,900).

Other Engravings of Note.

Among the other engravings of note by this master which will be offered are the companion pieces, "L'Aveu Difficile," "La Comparison" and "La Tollette de Venus," "L'Indiscretion," "A! Laisse Moi Done Voir" and "Mademoiselle du T."

The etching, "Le Billet Doux of Lavereinee," which brought 6,900 francs ($1,380) in 1911, and a pair of engrave-Bernhardt by her friends and admirers, ings, "Les Trois Soeurs au Parc de St. Clou" and "Les Graces Parisiennes au Bois de Vincenes" are among the Bois de Vincenes" are among the works of this artist which are offered.

"Marie Antoinette," by Bonnet, after Klanzinger, is another print which will probably command a high price. Only four impressions of this engraving are known.

THE PHILHARMONIC CONCERT.

Beethoven, List and Wagner Furnish Evening's Programme.

The Philharmonic Society's concert is Carnegie Hail last evening was one to give pleasure to the subscribers, but not is call imperiously for comment this morning. The compositions performed were Beethoven's fourth symphony, Liszt's symphonic poem. "Die Ideale" and his E flat piano concerto, and the concert arrangement of the "Tristan und Isolde" prelude and "love death." The planist was Mme. Teresa Carreno.

Except for the fact that Beethoven's B flat symphony is not played very often and that Philharmonic patrons are receiving a liberal education in Liszt from Mr. Stransky, there is nothing important to record. It might be well to keep in mind that the conductor of the Philharmonic is under certain obligations to play the classics and also Liszt and Wagner. "lest we forget." But in the present time they manage to hold their own without the aid of propaganda. The programme will be repeated this afternoon.

The programme will be repeated this

MISS BRANDEGEE IN RECITAL

lard and Flocco, and in these, as in the more ambitious numbers, she played with a style embracing technical school-Trancs ($1,800), and 5,700 francs ($1,140) respectively.

Two little engravings by Janinet in gouache manner after H. Fragonard dope in 1777, "L'Amour" and "La Folle," will probably greatly attract collectors. proved through a finer understanding of the subtleties of bowing.

The player's sense of correct intons tion stood the test excellently also much grace and poetic sentiment

Rernhardt Matinee To-day.

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt will give an

Mason & Hamlin PIANOS

For those willing to pay the price, the Mason & Hamlin Piano offers values beyond comparison.

1st, The tone and quality of the Mason & Hamlin is unequaled, and is generally so regarded by competent judges.

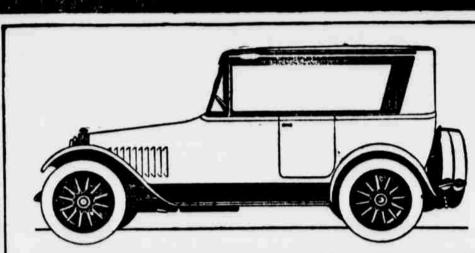

2nd, A longer life of tone is assured by our pat-ented Tension Resonator system of construction than is otherwise possible. 8rd, The touch, or action, is so scientifically and delicately adjusted that it responds to the sire of the player without imposing fatigue. For these reasons, brought about by a willingness to spend enough money to build the most supremely beautiful of all pianos, the Mason & Hamlin has earned the distinction of being the Piano De Luxe of the World

MASON & HAMLIN CO.

$18 Fifth Avenue, at 32nd Street

THE DESIRABLE SEDAN

Here is the most modern car the country knows -a Chalmers touring sedan. A touring car and yet a closed car. A summer car, as you will observe, and a winter car: wind-proof and storm-proof. Simply pull up the windows all around. Not a heavy car. Weight, 3235 lbs. Active. An easy rider. Plenty of power. $1850. (All prices f.o.b. Detroit)

C. T. SILVER
1760 B'way at 57th St.
Tel. Circle 700.

BRONX-YONKERS

BROOKLYN

